1950 HARVEST EDITION

...THE RECORD OF THE HARVEST YEAR OF EDUCATION...

OUR PAST YEARS HAVE BEEN THE DEVELOPMENT AND GROWING...NOW WE ARE PREPARED TO MARCH OUT INTO THE MARKET--THE WORLD...

COME WITH US THROUGH OUR "MILESTONE" AND VIEW THE BEST YEARS OF OUR LIVES.

Dedication

During our years at Eastern many people have contributed to our preparation for the future. The faculty, individually, and as a whole, has been untiring in its efforts to advance our best interests. Therefore, we, the Senior Class, realizing our inability to judge whether any individual has done more for us than another, wish to express our gratitude by dedicating the 1950 Milestone to the entire faculty of Eastern.

Our Honor Offices

and Organizations

Miss Eastern

Miss Eastern is representative of the ideal co-ed of Eastern. She is elected by popular vote on the basis of beauty, personality, scholarship and leadership, and represents Eastern at the Mountain Laurel Festival, held annually in Pineville.

DORIS CROLEY

Miss Popularity

Miss Popularity is second only to Miss Eastern and is chosen by popular vote, according to the same standards.

PAUL HICKS

Mr. Popularity

The title of Mr. Popularity is the highest male honor-office at Eastern. Mr. Popularity is chosen according to personality, scholarship, leadership, and is elected by popular vote.

PEG STURDEVANT

Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities

Second Row—Paul Duncan, Jack Kerley, Ed Strohmeier, Archie Stamper, Kenneth Wall, Fred Malott.

Students selected to Who's Who in American Colleges and Universities are chosen by a joint faculty and student committee. To be eligible for selection the student must be a senior or a junior who will graduate this school year. A minimum scholastic standing of 1.5 in all college work is required. In addition to these requirements the committee considers student participation in activities, qualities of leadership, and service to the student body.

CHARLES T. HUGHES
Director of Athletics

Charles "Turkey" Hughes, our hard working Director of Athletics, is a "straight shooter" who devotes his spare time to teaching better physical education to Kentuckians and also to promoting the Boy Scouts of America.

He was formerly a "four letterman" at the University of Kentucky and also pitched baseball as a professional before coming to Eastern. His policies of fair play are a great asset to our school, our state and our nation.

He was a great lineman on the famous University of Michigan teams in the early thirties. At the school he was named an "All-Big Ten" tackle.

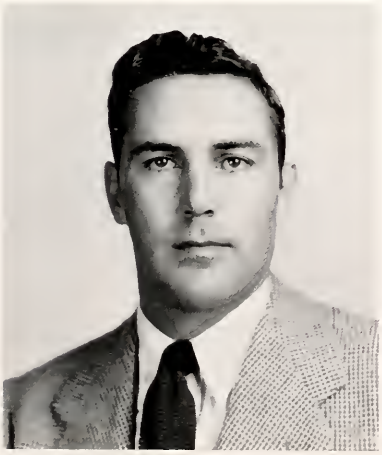
Coach Samuels has just completed his third season as head coach of the Maroon gridiron machine. Prior to taking over as head mentor he had served as line coach here for many seasons. In the past few seasons, he has established Eastern as a small college football power. His teams play some of the toughest small college elevens in the country.

Tom is also active in health education work. In his spare time he serves as a registered pharmacist.

BACKFIELD COACH GLENN PRESNELL

"Pres" has been at Eastern since Coach Samuels took over three years ago. He is an expert on the T-Offensive and excels at designing defenses to halt fancy enemy attacks.

Coach Presnell was an "All-America" selection at the University of Nebraska many years ago. He later played professional football and still holds place-kicking records which he established while with the Detroit Lions. Prior to coming to Eastern he was head coach at the University of Nebraska.



LINE COACH FRED DARLING

A former Maroon line great himself, Coach Darling earned "Little All-America" honors here playing on one of our undefeated elevens. He is a hard worker and has the unenviable task of scouting future foes.

Many Eastern followers rated the Maroons' 1949 schedule as the toughest in the history of the college. Three of the opponents were unbeaten the previous year (Heidelberg, Wofford and Bowling Green). A fourth foe, Murray, had been beaten in 1948 only by Eastern.

The Maroons also had a big rebuilding job on their hands replacing the entire left side of the line and two regular backs. Considering all these factors, the Maroon and White did well last fall. They scored impressive victories over such arch rivals as Murray's Thoroughbreds, and Western's Hilltoppers. Coach Tom Samuels' crew also downed Bowling Green University of Ohio and Michigan State Normal. The Maroons pulled a major upset in holding heavily favored Evansville's Aces to a 7-7 tie.

PAUL MCBRAYER
Head Coach

In Paul McBrayer, Eastern has one of the finest basketball coaches in the nation. The "big Irishman" is a master of the game. He is well liked by his players, the student body, members of the faculty and thousands of Kentuckians who have followed his progress in the coaching profession the past twenty years.

"Mac" was an All-American basketballer himself at the University of Kentucky in his playing days. Since coming to Eastern four years ago, he has kept the Maroons among the top ranking teams of the nation. Of 800 teams ranked each year, his Eastern teams have never finished out of the top fifty. This year the Maroon and White reached a new high, finishing in eleventh place nationally.

If Coach McBrayer remains at Eastern, the teams of "big E" will undoubtedly continue moving toward the top.

BOB COLEMAN
Assistant Coach

Coach Coleman only last year graduated from Eastern. He is a student of the "McBrayer system," having played under Coach McBrayer for three years. Bobby made good as a coach in his first year for his Eastern Frosh squad went undefeated in twenty games.

OF THE

Ohio Valley Conference Tournament

(Ranked 11th in the nation)

Hail the Champions of the Ohio Valley Conference . . . .

Eastern had a great basketball season in the 1949-50 campaign. Against the toughest available competition, the Maroons won 16 games and lost 6. Nationally recognized authorities ranked the Easternites as the eleventh team in the nation in a list of more than 800 collegiate quintets at the close of the season.

The Maroons of Coach Paul McBrayer closed their season in grand fashion by winning the championship of the Ohio Valley Conference Tournament, one of the stiffest meets in the nation. The McBrayer men accomplished this by defeating both Western Kentucky and Marshall in one day.

On this memorable day, Eastern downed the Thundering Herd of Marshall by a 66-62 count in the afternoon. Several hours later, the Varsity copped its greatest victory of the year by whipping its arch rival, Western Kentucky, by a 62-50 romp.

During the regular campaign, Eastern defeated such powers as Bowling Green University of Ohio, Beloit College, Louisville, Evansville, Marshall and Dayton.
